

I am submitting a comment to oppose the proposal to weaken the "no soliciting call" policy in Indiana. There are many competitive ways for businesses (especially including banks and creditors) to advertise and solicit clients. Allowing for a flood of calls to coerce or entice individuals is unethical and unfair.